CONTRACT

This Contract is made and entered into this 14th day of September 2004, by and between the CITY OF EL PASO, Texas, a municipal corporation, hereinafter referred to as "CITY" and PAUL HUEREQUE, hereinafter referred to as "CONTRACTOR."

The parties to this contract hereby agree as follows:

1. The City and Contractor agree to exhibit Contractor's artwork in the People's Gallery during the period of November 3, 2004 through January 28, 2005.
2. The City shall pay rental fee of FIVE HUNDRED AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($500.00) for the Exhibition. Contractor shall provide the City with an invoice for the contracted amount. Payment will be made in accordance with the policies and procedures of the City Comptroller's Department.
3. The City shall provide reasonable insurance for protection against theft, vandalism, adverse environmental conditions or other damage while the exhibition is under its care, custody and control during the exhibition period. Such insurance shall be the sole source of recovery for any damage to the exhibition. Any claim must be filed by the Contractor within thirty (30) days of the last day of the exhibit; failure to do so may result in denial of the claim thereafter. The request for a claim shall be submitted in triplicate form to the Director of the Arts and Culture Department. The claim will be forwarded by the Director to the Office of Management and Budget for processing. The request for a claim must include a verifiable appraisal of any diminution in value from an independent appraiser.
4. Contractor agrees to provide the following advertising and promotional materials at the signing of this Contract:

- Four (4) color slides representing the show
- Resume
- Title of exhibit
- List of artwork exhibiting, including titles, value, price, media and dimensions of each piece.
- Additional promotional material (photographs, reviews etc.) if any

5. City's staff will be responsible for promotion and printing of invitations, as well as unpacking, hanging, and re-packing of Exhibitions materials. The City's staff actions as to the hanging of Contractor's artwork shall be final. The Contractor agrees to allow the City to exercise sole discretion in the selection of art to be displayed, as well as the location and arrangement of such display; however, the Contractor may submit a layout as to how the work should be displayed. Artwork must be properly matted, wired, framed, and ready to hang. Artwork submitted for the exhibit must be the medium selected by the panel. The City exercises the right to display all, part, or none of art submitted by the Contractor under this Contract. The Contractor agrees that the City's decision regarding the display of any or all of the Contractor's work shall be final.

6. Contractor shall be responsible for delivering the artwork by October 28, 2004, and for picking up the artwork from the City's Arts and Culture Department on January 31, 2005. Any artwork remaining with the City's Arts and Culture Department after January 31, 2005 shall be stored at the Contractor's expense. The City shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to Contractor's artwork arising from such storage.

7. Any notices required under this Contract shall be sufficient if sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the parties as follows:

4. Contractor agrees to provide the following advertising and promotional materials at the signing of this Contract:

- Four (4) color slides representing the show
- Resume
- Title of exhibit
- List of artwork exhibiting, including titles, value, price, media and dimensions of each piece.
- Additional promotional material (photographs, reviews etc.) if any

5. City's staff will be responsible for promotion and printing of invitations, as well as unpacking, hanging, and re-packing of Exhibitions materials. The City's staff actions as to the hanging of Contractor's artwork shall be final. The Contractor agrees to allow the City to exercise sole discretion in the selection of art to be displayed, as well as the location and arrangement of such display; however, the Contractor may submit a layout as to how the work should be displayed. Artwork must be properly matted, wired, framed, and ready to hang. Artwork submitted for the exhibit must be the medium selected by the panel. The City exercises the right to display all, part, or none of art submitted by the Contractor under this Contract. The Contractor agrees that the City's decision regarding the display of any or all of the Contractor's work shall be final.

6. Contractor shall be responsible for delivering the artwork by July 28, 2005 and for picking up the artwork from the City's Arts and Culture Department on October 31, 2005. Any artwork remaining with the City's Arts and Culture Department after October 31, 2005 shall be stored at the Contractor's expense. The City shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to Contractor's artwork arising from such storage.

7. Any notices required under this Contract shall be sufficient if sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the parties as follows:

THE STATE OF TEXAS)

COUNTY OF EL PASO)

This Contract is made and entered into this 14th day of September 2004, by and between the CITY OF EL PASO, Texas, a municipal corporation, hereinafter referred to as "CITY" and GREGORY DAVIS, hereinafter referred to as "CONTRACTOR."

The parties to this contract hereby agree as follows:

1. The City and Contractor agree to exhibit Contractor's artwork in the People's Gallery during the period of August 3, 2005 through October 28, 2005.

2. The City shall pay rental fee of THREE HUNDRED AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($300.00) for the Exhibition. Contractor shall provide the City with an invoice for the contracted amount. Payment will be made in accordance with the policies and procedures of the City Comptroller's Department.

3. The City shall provide reasonable insurance for protection against theft, vandalism, adverse environmental conditions or other damage while the exhibition is under its care, custody and control during the exhibition period. Such insurance shall be the sole source of recovery for any damage to the exhibition. Any claim must be filed by the Contractor within thirty (30) days of the last day of the exhibit; failure to do so may result in denial of the claim thereafter. The request for a claim shall be submitted in triplicate form to the Director of the Arts and Culture Department. The claim will be forwarded by the Director to the Office of Management and Budget for processing. The request for a claim must include a verifiable appraisal of any diminution in value from an independent appraiser.
